A Tip From Shauna:

Looking for a cool way to embellish your journaling? Hand-write your journaling directly on your page, then incorporate tape-style fragments into the journaling for a unique look.

See your local retailer for project supplies.

3. Cut out the tag from the artwork and journal on it with a black pen. Add a white mini brad to the top of the tag and adhere the tag just below the bow using foam mounting tape.
 4. Journal directly on the background paper with a black pen, leaving enough room in between words for the tape-style fragments. Cut out the fragments and glue the fragments to the background as desired to fit in with your journaling.
