A Tip From Paris:

Take advantage of patterned paper! This background paper has a square border at the bottom, so I altered the colored squares with penwork and ribbons, turning the squares into little birthday packages. I added black ink to the edges of the photo mats, journaling and artwork to really make them pop from the multi-colored background.

3. Trim the orange textured paper to 8 1/2"x12" to fit in the printer. Print the journaling onto the paper, leaving room to add ribbon-style word fragments. Cut out the ribbon-style word fragments and ink the edges with black. Add the word fragments to the journaling using foam mounting tape. Trim the journaling to fit on the page and ink the edges with black. Glue to the page as shown.
  4. Cut out the square present artwork and ink the edges with black. Using foam mounting tape, attach the artwork vertically down the right side of the journaling.
  5. Cut out the alphabet tiles and ink the edges with black. Using foam mounting tape, secure the alphabet tiles onto the bottom of the page, placing one letter in each tile in the border. Use a black pen to add pen work to the squares on the border. Cut five strips of red grosgrain ribbon and tie each into a knot. Using Glue Dots™, attach one knotted ribbon to the top of each of the squares with penwork on it.
